This Volume has been printed by a few friends in grateful memory of JOHN HARCOURT CHICHESTER EVELYN (1876—1922), of Wotton House, Patron of these three livings, who lost his life in the service of his country; and also of Mrs. H. E. MALDEN (1852—1919), who transcribed the Registers.

The boundaries of the Parishes and their relations with their neighbours are shewn in the Map which forms a frontispiece to this Volume.

THE REGISTERS.—The keeping of official Parish Registers dates back to the reign of Henry VIII., when Thomas, Lord Cromwell, enforced the obligation in 1538. In 1591 an order enjoined that all Registers should be written on parchment, and the earlier ones, if on paper, were to be copied on parchment.²

The three Parishes whose Registers we print form a fairly complete geographical unit in the hill district of mid-Surrey, and members of the same families are to be found in each parish. At various times there have been disputes as to the boundaries, but it seems clear that Oakwood, a woodman's little chapel in the heart of the forest area, was always considered as inferior to the mother churches of Wotton and Abinger, both of which parishes claimed certain rights in Oakwood.

Extant Registers are as follows:—

ABINGER.—Volume 1.—Baptisms, 1559—1806.

Marriages, 1559—1755.

Burials, 1559—1806.

Volume 2.—Marriages and Banns, 1755—1812.

Volume 3.—Baptisms, 1807—1812.

Burials, 1807—1812.

WOTTON.—Volume 1.¹—Baptisms, 1596—1812.

Marriages, 1603—1753.

Burials, 1596—1812.

Volume 2.—Marriages and Banns, 1754—1812.

OAKWOOD.—Volume 1.—Baptisms, 1700—1814.

Burials, 1696—1813.

Marriages, 1697—1751.

The Abinger Register continues practically without a break from 1559. The Wotton Register is also free from any break, except that there are no Marriage entries for the years 1651—54 and 1655—57. On p. 147 of Vol. 1 a list of Rectors, entered in 1700 during the rectorship of Robert Wye, shews the date of burial of the first-mentioned Rector as 1553. This points to an earlier Register Book now lost. On p. 133 there is a note, dated 1697, in the handwriting of John Evelyn, commenting on the bad condition of the Register, and of its rebinding. In the Oakwood Register the earliest entries, 1696—1706, have been taken from a book in private hands (see pp. 222, 247 and 256), and the reason for the omission of entries between 1706 and 1727 is given on p. 223. It will be noticed that the Marriage entries cease in 1751, and there is no other Marriage Register until 1853. Probably during that interval all Marriages had to be solemnized at the Parish Church of Wotton.

The Bishop's Transcripts have not been consulted. Some of these are at Winchester and some are at Southwark, but as they have not been sorted or arranged it is impossible to say to what period they belong.

THE PRINCIPAL FAMILIES.—The principal family in the three parishes, throughout the period covered by these Registers, was that of the Evelyns of Wotton, whose complete pedigree has been compiled by C. G. S. Foljambe.¹ There are no entries in the Wotton Register of the previous owners of the Manor, the Owens, who sold it to George Evelyn of Long Ditton in 1579.

There are many entries of the ancient family of Steere of Ockley, and another family of importance, the Combers,² whose estate passed to the family of Malthus, appears for several generations. Thomas Robert Malthus, the Political Economist, was baptized at Wotton 14 Feb. 1766. The Rectory of Wotton was held by three successive generations of the family of Higham.

Other armigerous families of the Herald's Visitations of 1623 and 1660 are:—

In Abinger, Terrell and Holeman.

In Wotton, Bray, Typton and Quinnell.

In Oakwood there appear to be none, nor in the whole of that Register is any person described as Esquire.

Numerous non-armigerous families may be traced in the Registers.

PERSONAL AND PLACE NAMES.—Some uncommon Christian names occur in these Registers: Deodatus (p. 7), Zelotus (p. 16). Frusannah occurs in each Register (pp. 27, 28, 72, 175, 226, 227). Ben-ammi and Jemuel, against which are quoted the chapter and verse in the Bible where they occur (pp. 36, 119, 123). Keziah (pp. 38, 230, 242), Cassandra (p. 40), Obed (pp. 75, 229), Hazael (pp. 86, 230), Willmorth (p. 110), Phrews or Frews (pp. 117, 229, 250), Bathshebah (pp. 119, 157), Ferdinando (p. 135), Uriah (p. 153), Gabrie (p. 140), Bethia (pp. 160, 164), Unity (p. 163), Rena (p. 168), Yarico (p. 216), Chrysogenes (p. 228), Tamar (p. 231).

The variations of place names (e.g., Westgate, Westcott) and the uncertainties of the boundaries of the parishes on the top of the wild common of Leith Hill may be traced in the index.

OTHER POINTS OF INTEREST.—The appointment of a Civil Registrar for Abinger in accordance with the Act of 1653 is recorded on p. 64, but no similar appointment appears in Wotton. The ordering of all Marriages to take place before a Justice of the Peace in accordance with the same Act was, in the case of Abinger, carried out until 1657, after which date responsibility appears to have reverted to the Rector; but there is not any evidence to shew whether it was carried out at Wotton.

The notice of burial in woollen only begins in the Abinger Register at the time of the second Act of 1678, when the affidavits or certificates are entered, but these are not recorded in Wotton. There is only one burial in linen recorded (p. 203) in the three Registers.

The tax levied between 1694 and 1703 during the war with France is not mentioned in any of the Registers, but the Stamp Act of 1783, repealed in 1794, imposing a duty of 3*d.* on each entry, is recorded in the Abinger Register (pp. 49, 50, 79) and in the Oakwood Register (p. 236) as Duty paid; it is not referred to in the Wotton Register.

In the Abinger Register the names of the Sovereigns are entered on their accession. No 'Briefs' are recorded in any parish. No references are made to the plague. There is a case of felo de se (p. 107) and of a centenarian (p. 125). There is a reference to the curious occupation of 'Hogringer' (p. 112). A certificate of a renunciation of the Errors of Popery will be found on p. 147. There are several references to the Camp on Wotton Heath, near Leith Hill, towards the end of the eighteenth century. An interesting entry in Wotton Register in 1675 is the death of John Lee, Messenger to King Charles II.

The List of Rectors and Patrons of the Living of Abinger, on p. xi, is a reprint of one compiled by Lord Farrer.

In the Appendix will be found two lists of lands and their owners responsible for fencing the churchyards, and a record of the planting and cutting down of trees during the years 1763 to 1765.

THE PRESENT TEXT.—In transcription the original Register has been followed exactly, with the following exceptions: the words 'son' and 'daughter' have been abbreviated to 's.' and 'd.' throughout. To save space certain redundant matter has been omitted or compressed, but when this is done the omission is shewn by a footnote (see pp. 1, 11, 25, 64, 73, 76—85, 89, etc.).

The thanks of the Surrey Record Society are due to the Rev. C. A. S. Page, Rector of Abinger, to the Rev. Mark Rice, Rector of Wotton, and to the Rev. L. N. Woolley, Vicar of Oakwood Chapel, for consenting to their Registers being printed; and to Mr. A. W. Hughes Clarke, who has undertaken the labour of checking the transcripts with the original and preparing the Index and, in occasional consultation with the Honorary Editor, seen the whole through the press.

Here ends the account of Baptisms in the before mentioned Book. John Risbridger the Clark has said that he used to keep a Register of the Christenings & Burials & Marriages at the Chapel in order to get something of People who wanted to know when their Friends were Christened or buried there. But the man who was employed to copy them out of his loose Papers into this Book lost the Papers which contained the entries made between Sept. 30 1708 & the [Page 11] year 1727, when they begin again & have been continued regularly ever since.
